

Chicago Daily Law Bulletin

Volume 158, No. 153

IN THE NEWS

Attorney Daniel A. Cotter successfully completed his third and heaviest squat at a weight of 540.1 pounds during the American Powerlifting Federation and Amateur American Powerlifting Federation's Chicago Summer Bash on July 28. Between his squat, bench and dead lift, he lifted a total of 1,360 pounds, which raised about $40,000 for the Lawyers Lend-A-Hand to Youth program. Over the past 10 years, he has raised close to $250,000 in total. Cotter said at the event that he thought he set eight state records for his age/weight class category at the event. He also took a first-place and second-place trophy. Ben Speckmann